

New Student Orientation

The college provides an orientation program for new students before the beginning of each semester. Incoming students have the opportunity to explore the campus, learn about various college services, meet with members of the campus community and get information on extracurricular and co-curricular activities and programs.

For additional information, visit CCM's New Student Orientation (<http://www.ccm.edu/student-life/campus-life/new-student-orientation/>) website.