Liberal Arts and Sciences - Humanities/Social Science

Associate in Arts Degree

This degree program is designed to meet the requirements of the first two years of a Bachelor’s degree. Students who graduate with this degree typically transfer to a four-year college or university, majoring in one of several fields in the humanities (such as English, history, philosophy, or a foreign language) or the social sciences (such as psychology, sociology, political science, or economics). The program offers a wide range of flexibility in terms of a student’s ultimate educational goals and provides excellent preparation for further study.

This program also accommodates individuals seeking two years of education in the liberal arts.

Degrees

AA Liberal Arts and Sciences--Humanities/Social Science

(P1130)
The Liberal Arts and Sciences--Humanities/Social Science program is an ideal foundation for transfer to four-year colleges and universities in a wide variety of majors including English, history, languages, economics, psychology, sociology, communication, global studies, political science and many other fields. It is considered a starting point for careers in law, education, science, government and human services or for those whose academic interests are in the specialized areas of the social sciences or humanities. After receiving the associate’s degree, students in this program generally transfer to earn a bachelor’s degree. The program especially accommodates students who wish to focus on general education classes or who want to take college-level courses for their own enrichment. Students uncertain of their career goals are offered an opportunity for exploration within this program.

Articulation Agreements

Students should check with the Transfer Office about articulation agreements with this program.

If you are considering a career in teaching, please read about the County College of Morris Teacher Education Specializations.

Courses

ART-102. Introduction to Computer for Fine Art. 1 Credit.
LECT 15 hrs
This 7-week, 1-credit introductory course will teach Fine Art Students the essential elements of the Photoshop interface. Students will learn basic retouching as well as photo editing, including how to correct, enhance, and distort digital images of their art work, and prepare those images for use in print and on the web.

ART-114. Contemporary Art. 3 Credits.
LECT 45 hrs
Contemporary Art launches with a review of 19th and 20th century art and then brings students to the here and now, the art and the artists of today. In lectures, multimedia presentations and field experiences, students are exposed to the pluralism of the new global art world.

ART-116. American Art. 3 Credits.
LECT 45 hrs
A survey and overview of the development of visual art traditions in America beginning with the colonization of the Americas and continuing through the Modern and Post-Modern periods. Arts, crafts and architecture are examined as well as Native American, African American, Hispanic and other cultural influences contributing to the development of a uniquely American experience and vision.
ART-122. Drawing I. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
In Drawing I, beginning art students learn the methods, materials and visual information needed to draw what we see. In small steps, students are led through a series of simple exercises designed to build competence and confidence. The diversity and complexity of the subjects drawn gradually grows along with students’ drawing and visual skills. Students create a sketch book and a portfolio including still life drawings, landscape drawings, perspective drawings and portraiture. Materials used include pencil, charcoal, conte crayon and ink.
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-123. Drawing II. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
Drawing II is an intermediate-level drawing course designed for students who wish to build upon the skills and knowledge acquired in ART-122 Drawing I. Students explore a wide range of tools, mediums and surfaces. Larger scale drawings, the introduction of color in drawing and experimentation with subjects and visual space are encouraged. Drawing II also includes a study of basic anatomy for artists and an introduction to drawing from live nude models, both male and female. By semester end, successful students will have created a sketch book and diverse portfolio of competent and expressive drawings that complement student portfolios begun in ART-122 Drawing I.
Prerequisites: ART-122
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-124. Figure Drawing. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
In Figure Drawing, student artists draw from live nude models, both male and female, study in-depth anatomy for artists and explore a variety of methods and materials to create expressive drawings of the human figure. By the end of the semester, successful students will have created a wide selection of figure drawings to support the drawing portfolio begun in Drawing I and continued in Drawing II.
Prerequisites: ART-122, ART-123
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-130. Two Dimensional Design. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
In Two Dimensional Design, students learn, through lectures, multimedia presentations, and simple drawing, painting and collage projects, how to control and compose visual elements on a two-dimensional plane. These visual elements include line, shape, light, texture, scale and a brief introduction to color applied on two-dimensional surfaces such as paper, board and canvas-board. Student artists who successfully complete this course will have a solid initial portfolio and the fundamental knowledge and basic skills needed to create better, more effective photographs, drawings, paintings, prints, illustrations, designs and graphic designs.
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-131. Color Theory. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
In Color Theory students learn, through lectures, multimedia presentations and assigned projects using a variety of art mediums, how color affects the human eye, mind, body and spirit. Students who successfully complete this course will add a strong body of artwork that exhibits a working knowledge of color theory and its application in the visual arts, adding to the initial portfolio of artwork created in Drawing I and Two Dimensional Design.
Prerequisites: ART-122 and either ART-130 or DSN-108
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-132. Three Dimensional Design. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
In Three Dimensional Design, students, through lectures, multimedia presentations and assigned projects using a variety of materials and the basic aspects of planning, sketching and modeling, learn to understand and control the visual and physical forces inherent in the creation of three-dimensional objects. Students who successfully complete this course will add a body of three-dimensional art work to their portfolios. Student artists will also possess the fundamental knowledge and basic skills needed to pursue further studies in sculpture, ceramics, design (product, industrial, interior, fashion) and architecture.
Prerequisites: ART-122 and either ART-130 or DSN-108
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-133. Art History I. 3 Credits.
LECT 45 hrs
Art History I is a global survey of the major developments in painting, sculpture and architecture from the cave art of prehistory through the art of Africa, the Near East, South and South East Asia, Korea, China, Japan, Egypt, Greece and Rome, through the Gothic in Europe. Students explore, through lectures, multimedia presentations and a field experience at major art museums, the social, technological and spiritual changes that influenced the evolution of subjects, styles and ideas expressed in early art.

ART-134. Art History II. 3 Credits.
LECT 45 hrs
Art History II explores the significant developments in painting, sculpture and architecture from the High Renaissance to the art of the late 20th century, and the art of Africa and the Americas. Political, religious, scientific, industrial and technological revolutions are mirrored in the powerful and dramatic changes that take place in the art world. Through lecture, visual presentations and a field experience, students discover important stylistic movements of the last half-millennium from around the world.

ART-135. Art Appreciation. 3 Credits.
LECT 45 hrs
Art Appreciation will introduce students to the creative processes and techniques used in the diverse media of the visual arts. Through the study and analysis of artworks, students are introduced to visual literacy principles to examine and understand historical, global, economic, cultural and conceptual contexts. Students will correlate the arts with a general history of culture, develop a multicultural perspective of the arts, and learn to understand its application to our contemporary visual culture and its uses. Students will discover the human impulse to create art, and how artistic expression addresses universal humanistic themes.
ART-219. Painting I. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
Painting I introduces students to the technical, formal and creative aspects of painting in either oil or acrylic paint. Student artists work with diverse subject matter and explore a variety of methods, tools and materials.
Prerequisites: ART-122, ART-130, ART-131
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-220. Painting II. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
Painting II advances students in the technical, formal and creative aspects of painting in either oil or acrylic paint. Student artists work with diverse subject matter and explore a variety of methods, tools and materials.
Prerequisites: ART-219
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-228. Sculpture I. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
In Sculpture I, students explore space and form, and three-dimensional media in the creation of expressive sculptural objects. Students model, carve and construct in a variety of media such as clay, plaster, stone, wood, metal and paper.
Prerequisites: ART-122, ART-130, ART-131, ART-132
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-229. Sculpture II. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
Sculpture II builds on the basic skills acquired in prerequisite courses and Sculpture I. Sculpture II is an extension of Sculpture I with a greater emphasis on originality and personal style and self-expression. Student artists continue to develop their understanding of the human figure, form and of the media and techniques by which to represent them.
Prerequisites: ART-228
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-230. Portfolio and Presentation. 3 Credits.
LECT 30 hrs LAB 45 hrs
Portfolio and Presentation guides students in the selection of artworks appropriate to include in final portfolios. Students improve, restore, repair or complete any work necessary to the portfolio. Students assemble, collate and document all work in physical and digital forms in preparation for submission to targeted transfer institutions, galleries, museums or prospective employers or clients. Students create written documents including resumes, cover letters and biographies to support professional activities. A final art exhibition and formal presentation of the portfolio and supporting materials are required.
Prerequisites: ART-122, ART-131, and ART-130 or DSN-108.
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

ART-233. Independent Study I. 1 Credit.
LECT 15 hrs
Course study designed with a faculty advisor. The student is responsible for developing a statement of goals and objectives and submitting proposed projects.
Prerequisites: Permission of department chair
Additional Fees: Course fee applies.

This course surveys the development and interaction of world religions, such as Judaism, Christianity, Islam, African religions, Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism and Shintoism. It examines major figures, stories, rituals and beliefs of the religions, and shows how they shape the lives of believers. Finally, it analyzes philosophical concepts such as God and gods, faith and reason, immortality, good and evil, karma, love, meditation, mysticism and nirvana.

PHL-213. Philosophy of Religion. 3 Credits.
LECT 45 hrs
This is a course in the philosophy of Western monotheistic religion. Its main focus is on the doctrine (often said to be common to Islam, Christianity, and Judaism) that there is exactly one supreme being, God, who is all-knowing, all-powerful, morally perfect, and created the world (among other things). The course evaluates arguments for and against the existence of God, and examines questions pertinent to the existence of such a God. Central to the course are these two questions: 1) Regardless of what people have believed or why they have believed it, can we establish, by reason, that God exists (or doesn't exist); and 2) what is the nature of a perfect being.

PHL-216. Contemporary Moral Issues. 3 Credits.
LECT 45 hrs
Contemporary Moral Issues ranges over current topics of interest in philosophy, including but not limited to: philosophies of race, gender, violence, and warfare. In addition, it revisits familiar issues, such as the relationship between philosophy and science, philosophy and religion, the evolution of right and wrong, philosophy and literature, and morality without religion. Further topics include moral relativism, the difficulty of philosophy, philosophy's purpose, the philosophy of love, and many more. The course introduces new topics in philosophy and revisits old ones.

PHL-218. Philosophy and Civil Disobedience. 3 Credits.
LECT 45 hrs
Philosophies of civil disobedience form a subset of political thought. The topics in this course will include the rights to free expression, assembly, and peaceful protest. Emphasis will be placed on the present century and the voices of freedom and human rights. As a corollary, the course will examine whether there are limits to free expression and will distinguish civil disobedience from uncivil disobedience. To add an historical perspective, the origins of several movements will be studied: anti-slavery, women's suffrage, and the history of the current social justice movement.

PHL-221. Philosophy of Plato. 3 Credits.
