

Languages

County College of Morris offers the following languages that count towards a student's graduation requirements: American Sign Language, Arabic, French, Italian, Japanese, and Spanish; Chinese, German, Latin and Russian are also offered based on enrollment trends and demand. Students who wish to study languages should select International Studies or Liberal Arts and Sciences: Humanities/Social Science as a major.

Each language is offered in four basic levels:

- Elementary I (no knowledge of language expected or required)
- Elementary II
- Intermediate I
- Intermediate II

In addition to these four levels, the Languages Program may offer the following advanced courses depending on student interest and enrollment:

- French Conversation and Literature I & II
- German Conversation and Literature I & II
- Italian Conversation and Literature I & II
- Advanced Spanish Composition
- Advanced Spanish Conversation
- Survey of Latin American Literature: Pre-Columbian to the Present
- Spanish Literature

Additional information about world language classes and program requirements:

- A student who has taken two or more years of a language in high school within the last three years may not enroll in the elementary level "111" of a language and must see the department chairperson for a placement evaluation. ASL students with one year of high school ASL should register for ASL 112 or higher.
- Native speakers of one of the languages offered may only enroll in advanced courses of that language, or they must choose a different language to study. Permission to take advanced classes must be obtained from the department chairperson.
- Students may also fulfill their language requirement through a departmental examination in the languages we offer if they demonstrate appropriate and specific criteria. Please see department chairperson for an evaluation of eligibility.
- Students may receive academic credit for the AP exam in Chinese, French, German, Italian or Spanish.
- Students who have taken CLEP tests through a recognized testing center can apply to obtain credits towards a degree at CCM. No other tests will be accepted to grant language credits at CCM.
