

Changes and Cancellations

Because of the uncertainties regarding course enrollment and appropriation of public funds for community colleges, the college reserves the right to modify, alter or cancel any of its programs, courses or services.

The college reserves the right to change instructors, to cancel, combine or divide courses, to change the time, date or place of meeting, to change the cost per course, and to make other necessary decisions in these course offerings, and to do so without obligation. The college may cancel a course if registration fails to meet expected levels. If a course is cancelled, we attempt to notify participants through student email prior to the first class meeting. Students will receive a full refund. The college is not responsible for errors in printed and online materials.
